

Fosim Presents

On 21st June 2023

Maj (Retd) David Pollard

At the Surrey History Centre
12.30 for 13.00pm

The Dhofar Campaign

David was seconded to the Sultan's Armed Forces in 1975, serving in the Muscat Regiment. He will talk about the strategic importance of Oman and its topography, giving an overview of the course of the war. He will also talk about the operation from Sarfait, close to the South Yemen border, which enabled SAF to build an obstacle down to the sea, thus stopping enemy movement into Oman and effectively ending the war, and in which he took part.

Cost £12.50 to include lunch - £5.00 talk only time for arrival 14.00pm
